Pictures Needed For Local War Loan Campaign

Pictures to be Featured in Store Windows; Merchants Co-Operating.

Coleman, ever proud of her sons and daughters in the armed forces both at home and overseas, is going to do them honor during the forthcoming Victory Loan campaign.

The pictures will be featured in all local store windows during the campaign, the merchants having agreed to co-operate by decorating their windows in patriotic colors. These windows will be well lighted during the evenings and should be of great interest to the citizens generally.

Relatives or friends having pictures of a local person in the armed forces are asked to take the picture, along with the subject's name, rank, date of birth, when enlisted and if overseas, when he left Canadian shores, to either the Frank Aboussafy store, The Journal office or Victory Loan headquarters in the Italian Block. Please print the information plainly so that there will be no error when it is placed in the merchant's window.

It is hoped that the public will co-operate in this scheme as there are many persons in town who are only faintly aware of the number of men and women in the armed services from Coleman.

Youngsters Sponsor Circus to Aid Milk Fund

It is doubtful if many towns have the same number of ambitious youngsters as has Coleman. During the past several weeks many of them have given their time and energy towards raising money for the Milk For Britain fund, their activities having been recorded in past Journal issues.

This week the spotlight falls on four youths residing on Fifth street. They are Walter and Gordon Roper, Robert Hill and Wayne Mitchell. These youths, anxious to raise money for the Milk Fund sponsored a "circus" in the Roper garage. Here they brought toys, and games and as the piece-de-resistance raffled off a set of dishes given them by Mrs. Roper. A charge of one cent was made to play with any toy or play with the dart board. The dishes were raffled and won by Alan Fry. Many Fifth street youngsters attended and $1.75 was raised. The money was brought to the Coleman Cash Grocery and deposited in the Fund milk bottle.

Sports' Association Gives Attention to Arena

Ask Contractor D'Appollonia For Estimate on Partly Repairing Roof

The Coleman Sports' Association held a meeting on Friday evening and dealt with the subject of making repairs to the local arena. It was decided to ask Contractor J. A. C. D'Appollonia to inspect the skating rink roof and give them an estimate on how much it would cost to place roofing paper on the section most in need of repair.

Mr. D'Appollonia has examined the roof and is now waiting a reply from the firm supplying roofing paper to see if he can get a sufficient quantity before sending in his quotation to the Association executive.

LOCAL PICTURE FEATURED IN WAR CRY

The day following the opening of the new Salvation Army hall on main street, Lieut. Marks gathered together the Mayor and members of the council, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. L. Ursaki, Ye Ed. and Lieut. Nahrney and had them stand in front of the new building while Mr. Weir, of Weir's Photo Studio, snapped their pictures.

The picture is featured in the Oct. 9 issue of the War Cry along with a short story on the opening night's ceremony.

Joe DeKlyn May Take Over Ash Collections

Property Damage in West Coleman Again Discussed; Five Grass Fires Reported.

Regular meeting of the council was held on Monday evening. Present: Mayor Attribus, Councilors Aboussafy, Cox, Dutil, Ford, Jenkins and Ramsay.

Present also were Mr. Charles Makin and Mr. Joe DeKlyn and his elder brother, Mr. Makin informed council that due to sickness he would be unable to continue his town garbage collector and that Mr. Joe DeKlyn was interested in taking over the job, provided that it met with the consent of the council. After a little discussion council consented to having Mr. DeKlyn take over provided he could secure his release from the mines by the Selective Service, and come to agreement with Mr. Makin as to the cost of the truck, etc.

Mrs. Steve Panek was present and gave detailed report on damage to her West Coleman home due to former underground workings which were now settling. A letter was read from Mr. J. S. D'Appollonia pertaining to such damage to certain West Coleman homes a few years ago. The Works & Property committee was given power to act towards getting compensation for damage to the Panek and Soroff homes.

A letter of thanks from Lieut. R. D. Marks was received by the council for its co-operation in the opening of the new Salvation hall.

A report was received from the provincial child welfare inspector on the Barons home in which Jessie Androsak now resides. The home received an excellent report and it was recommended that the girl be allowed to stay there. Council was asked for $7 monthly to take care of clothing needs and to send down a lump sum of $30 to take care of clothing and a few school books. Another Barons home had been inspected and found to be an excellent home for the younger Androsak girl, Josie. The people of this home were willing to keep Josie and since she would be near her elder sister, council has consented to send the younger girl down to Barons to reside.

A small window in the Kellogg block was broken during the Black-Out staged this spring by one of the Black-Out committee and council has agreed to pay for the damage.

Charles Rayman, who has been idle for some time due to a bad eye, asked council for relief for he and his family during October. He stated he would again be able to work in November. His request was granted.

Fire Chief Antle reported five grass fires during the month of September. Causes were small boys with matches, cigarettes, glass, and someone burning rubbish. A total of $10 in wages was given to volunteer fire-fighters.

Mr. Falow's letter re: culvert under McGillivray tracks was read, and then filed.

The decisions of the Board of Public Utilities on the appeals against taxation of the Community hall, surgery and Dr. Leesmer's residence, which is owned by the hospital board were received. The doctor's house assessment was confirmed and the Community hall appeal was dismissed. In the case of the latter however the matter of taxation must be brought up each year.

The drainage system on Seventh street will be improved to take off the spring rains and

Strong Protest Against Nazi Cruelty Passed At Mass Meeting

Speakers Stress Action in Relieving Pressure on Occupied Poland; Listeners Urged to Work And Invest in Victory Bonds.

A mass meeting, sponsored by Coleman Polish Society and protesting against Nazi atrocities to the women and children of Occupied Poland, was held in the Polish hall on Sunday evening with approximately one hundred persons in attendance.

Speakers were Councillor Frank Aboussafy; Mrs. J. L. Lonsbury, of the Women's Auxiliary Canadian Legion; Harold Houghton, of the Canadian Legion; Walter Chackla, Coleman Polish Society; David Hoyle, principal of Coleman school; and E. O. Duke, M.L.A. Mrs. Walter Chackla was chairman.

The program opened with Polish Youth choir leading the audience in singing the Canadian and Polish National anthems.

Chairman Mrs. Chackla stated that mass meetings sponsored by the Polish societies were being held throughout Canada, United States and Great Britain during Sept. 26 to Oct. 10. The meetings were being held to protest against Nazi cruelty towards Polish women and children in Occupied Poland. The meetings were not expected to halt Nazi cruelty but to give words of comfort to those in the homeland and maintain their morale in the knowledge that the Allied world was fully aware of their plight and was doing its utmost to relieve them of Nazi domination and cruelty. The chairman in her remarks also listed the facts that Poles were without fuel, little food, youths were forced into slave labor, high mortality rate of infants, little education and that the Polish nation was threatened with extinction.

A letter of sympathy was read from Mayor Attribus who was unable to be present. He offered the council's services in order to help promote the protest of the Polish Society.

Councillor Frank Aboussafy stated that of all the conquered countries he thought the Polish people had possibly suffered the most. They had taken the brunt of the Nazi attacks from the outset and had continued to fight against their conquerors. To-day however the Russians were pushing the Nazis back from Russia, the R.A.F. was battering German cities, the Anglo-Canadian-American forces were pushing their way up the Italian mainland against the common enemy. The Italians, he pointed out, were better off as defeated opponents of the Allies than as an ally of the Germans. Words were no good, action is the only language Hitler knows. The only way to fight and relieve pressure on the Polish homeland was to work on and

Coleman School District No. 1216

Notice to Relatives of Persons on the Assessment Roll and to Tenants and to Relatives of Tenants

"Notice is hereby given that during the months of September and October, applications may be made under the provisions of Section 188 of the Town and Village Act, for inclusion in the voters' list of the Town of Coleman and the Coleman School District No. 1216 by the following persons, namely:

"1. The wife, husband, father and mother and every son and daughter of any person whose name appears on the assessment roll who are entitled to be placed upon the said list—

"(a) if he or she is resident within the town (or village) or assists him in a business in respect of which he is taxable; and

"(b) if he or she is of the full age of twenty-one years; and

"(c) if his or her name does not already appear on the roll.

"2. Tenants who have rented an assessed parcel or a self-contained apartment or residence on an assessed parcel upon which there are two or more self-contained apartments or residences for a period of twelve months immediately preceding the last day of August of this year.

"3. The wife, husband, father and mother, and every son and daughter of any tenant who has rented an assessed parcel or a self-contained apartment or residence on an assessed parcel upon which there are two or more self-contained apartments or residences for a period of twelve months immediately preceding the last day of August of this year, who are entitled to be placed upon the said list—

"(a) if he or she is resident within the town (or village) or assists him in a business in respect of which he is taxable; and

"(b) if he or she is of the full age of twenty-one years; and

"(c) if his or her name does not already appear on the roll."

Dated at Coleman, Alberta, this 7th day of October, 1943.

G. LEES, Sec.-Treas.

CITIZENS SHOULD HAVE NAMES INCLUDED ON VOTERS' LIST

Appearing on the front page of this issue is an advertisement directed towards relatives of persons on the assessment roll and to tenants asking them to place their names on the voters' list for the municipal elections next February.

An appeal already has been made to those citizens but few have registered at the Town office. The months of September and October have been set aside for placing names on the voters' list and after Oct. 31 the list will be closed. Those persons not having their names on the list will not be eligible to vote.

Hunters Ask A Shorter Season On Elk

Meat Lying Spoiling on Hillsides; Hillcrest Fish and Game Club Take Matter up With Edmonton.

At a time when meat is really scarce it is revealed this week that several hundred pounds of Elk meat lays rotting on the hillsides due to hunters being unable to bring it out quick enough before it starts to rot.

Hunters through the Pass are protesting strenuously against the Elk season opening on Oct. 1 when the weather is such that it prohibits them from keeping the meat any length of time. They claim that the season should be opened on Nov. 1 and close Dec. 31 instead of the present of Oct. 1 to Jan. 31.

Some members of the Hillcrest fish and game club were out after Elk this week and had the experience of having to leave most of the Elk meat on the hillside to rot as it had started to go to waste before they had a chance to bring it home. They saw one or two Elk carcasses in the woods going to waste. As a result the Hillcrest club has sent a letter to the provincial game commissioner urging him to shorten the season.

Local hunters are in approval with a shorter season as it appears the Elk meat starts to rot in mild weather, which is usually experienced here in October. It is stated that at least 150 hunters were out south of Burmis at the start of the Elk season.

Mayor Attribus is taking an active interest in the conservation of game in this area and is known to have asked E. O. Duke, M.L.A. to use his influence in getting a game warden in this territory.

Bill Naylor Takes Part in Heavy Raid on Kassel

London, Oct. 4.—Crewmen of a Halifax bomber, piloted by Sgt. Murray Flewelling, Calgary, had a close bombing trip to Kassel and back Sunday night.

The plane lost its hatch at the take-off from a British airbase, but the crew carried on although the temperature went to 32 below. Other Alberta airmen who took part in the raid were PO Bill Naylor, of Coleman, and PO Dave Canters, Edmonton.

Home Being Raffled By Kamloops Elks

Local Elks Selling Tickets At $1.00 Each; Receipts to Aid Children's Fund.

Tickets are on sale locally on the handsome home being raffled by the Kamloops Elks' lodge. A colored picture of the prize home is to be seen in the Coleman Hardware window where tickets are on sale. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will be devoted to the "Save the Children Fund."

The home has a fully modern kitchen, built-in conveniences, breakfast nook and dinette, large living room with fireplace, built-in bookcase, and inlaid hardwood floor, two large bedrooms, ample clothes closets, bathroom with Pembroke bath, wash basin and toilet, complete with chromium appointments, full basement and garage with modern indirect-lighting throughout the home. There is also a hot air heating system and the grounds have been artistically laid out.

Lions' Message to The People of Coleman

To Aid Jim Chalmers Have an Operation; Will Sponsor Raffle

Coleman Lions club has undertaken the task of raising funds to send Jimmy Chalmers to eastern Canada to obtain a plastic surgery operation. Jimmy's father is serving overseas in the armed forces.

As most of you know this unfortunate lad was severely burned as a result of several children playing with gasoline around a fire. The boy's present condition is pitiful, however by the use of the miracle of the modern plastic surgery this lad can be brought back to his full place in the community of man.

This is no small effort that the Coleman Lions club has embarked upon as several hundred dollars will be required, and in order to attain success it will require the unstinted effort of all of us.

Every organization in town will be approached to lend assistance which we know will be cheerfully extended.

The Lions club is placing a very excellent play-house up for raffle and it will be on display shortly. Tickets will be on sale this week end. Please dig deep when approached to purchase tickets. This is one of the most worthy causes you have ever been asked to subscribe to.

Four Young People Go "All Out" For Milk Fund

Have Three-Day Carnival; Net $17.74 First Day; Solicit Neighbors For Odds and Ends.

The most ambitious program ever undertaken by teen-aged people is reported this week by Mary Hopkins, Kenneth Fry, Robert Hill and Eileen Kennedy, who are sponsoring a carnival in the vacant lot next to the Harry Scaba residence on Fifth street.

The youngsters received bottles of lemon syrup from some stores to make lemonade which they sold at 2c per glass plus a cookie. The cookies they received from their respective mothers. They canvassed the neighborhood for odds and ends from helpful neighbors and were so successful that they had several well-filled booths. The goods received were so useful that the youngsters had as many adult customers as they did children and goods were being sold from 1c up to 25c. A doll crib will be raffled just as soon as the sponsors can find time to make tickets. A dart board is doing a good business. Grab bags at 1c each with a prize in every one realized $1.40.

Monday was the first day of the carnival. Rain cancelled the show on Tuesday and it was planned to re-open on Wednesday and then again on Saturday. The sponsors will be seeking more merchandise to re-fill the booths and with so many persons co-operating they will not doubt have very little trouble securing more goods.

The first day's receipts netted $17.74.

CORRESPONDENT HAS HIGH PRAISE FOR THE FIGHTING QUALITIES OF THE CANADIANS

LONDON.—There is no one who has seen the Canadians in action who doesn't think they are worthy successors as fighting men to any Canada sent overseas in the Great War.

"They're tremendous," said Ross Munro, 28-year-old war correspondent of the Canadian Press when he arrived in London Saturday from the battlefields of Sicily and the Italian mainland for a rest.

"Our troops seem absolutely tireless," said the lanky correspondent who got out the first word of the Canadians landing in Sicily in July and then marched northward with them and the British 8th army and crossed the Messina straits with the Dominion's invasion force into Italy.

"They are just as keen about the campaign today as when it started and they still have all their original enthusiasm for getting into battle," he said.

One stimulus for this is the fact that Canadians have been accepted by veterans of the 8th army as great fighters. The Americans also figure Canadians as such.

"Monty (Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery, commander of the 8th Army) seems sold on the Canadians," said Munro. "In Sicily we had Americans on one side and Britons on the other and it struck a great balance. Everybody got to know each other well and the Canadians soon showed there were plenty of reasons for placing full confidence in them."

Munro, who sailed from England with the attack force June 28, landed in Sicily July 10 and in Italy Sept. 3. Except for a one-week lay-off due to fever attacks he had been constantly with the fighting men. In four months, he said, they had become veteran campaigners.

"Anybody who watched them training in England would never recognize these men now," Munro added. "On the move they are just like a bunch of gypsies—the same as the 8th Army."

CROWN RIGHTS

OTTAWA.—The federal government has passed orders-in-council reserving to the crown in right of Canada all radio-active substances which may occur in minerals found in the Yukon and Northwest Territories. The orders were published in Canadian war orders and regulations.

Liverpool Cathedral now has Great Britain's largest church organ, it having 17,000 pipes and 208 stops.

SAYS YUGOSLAVIA MAY SOON BECOME A MAJOR FRONT WITH EXPECTED AID FROM THE ALLIES

LONDON.—King Peter II of Yugoslavia, declared in Cairo, that he expects Allied troops to be fighting on Yugoslav soil soon while thousands of Yugoslav patriots fought German troops in their mountainous homeland in battles approaching the stature of a major front.

Conducting his first press conference at the new seat of his government in Cairo, King Peter acknowledged he might not be able to accompany the invasion waves, but said he was looking forward eagerly to seeing Belgrade again. The exiled government moved to Cairo recently from London.

Split, on Yugoslavia's Adriatic coast, the port of Susak, 175 miles to the north near Italian Fiume, and the area of Gorizia, about 25 miles above Italian Trieste, were cores of action involving many Nazi divisions.

The German high command indicated the scope of the military task by declaring that in current action in the Gorizia area alone "Slovenian and Communist bands" had lost more than 1,000 killed and "several thousand prisoners." Nazi troops were reported to have been ordered to take no more prisoners.

The BBC said an Allied warship had taken arms to Yugoslav patriots along the Dalmatian coast.

In a communique broadcast by the Free Yugoslav station, heavy and indecisive fighting was reported about Split. It said patriot lines were holding strongly at Susak and that the Germans were suffering high casualties.

The Berlin radio told of bitter fighting in the Dolomite foothills be-

URGENTLY NEEDED

Packing Plants In Alberta Are Short Of Skilled Help

EDMONTON.—About 800 men are needed in Edmonton packing plants and 100 are required in Calgary, O. S. Longman, deputy minister of agriculture, said. He urged farmers of Alberta to help relieve the situation "immediately harvesting is concluded."

Present staffs are "dangerously short of skilled help capable of training and directing the high percentage of unskilled workers which must be employed," he said, adding that "it is obvious to all" the serious loss and wastage which may occur to farmers, packers and consumers if a bottleneck is allowed to develop in the meat packing industry.

Mr. Longman said "it would appear desirable" that men skilled in meat processing, at present engaged in other industries, or in the armed forces, should be recalled to meet the situation.

GERMAN INDUSTRY

Has Been Destroyed In Many Cities By Allied Raids

LONDON.—The Anglo-American aerial offensive has knocked out the industrial capacities of 15 of Germany's leading cities, tied up manpower estimated at perhaps 3,000,000, and made heavy inroads on Germany's fighter plane strength on the Russian front, a survey showed.

Aerial reconnaissance and reports from Germany show that industry in at least 15 cities have been knocked out for at least six months. Hanover and Mannheim are the latest cities listed as probably 60 per cent or more destroyed. Others include Hamburg, Cologne, Wilhelmshafen, Dortmund, Stettin, Osnabruck, Bremen, Dusseldorf and Emden. The heavy industry in the Ruhr has been virtually erased.

LARGE HONEY CROP

OTTAWA.—The 1943 honey crop is tentatively estimated by the Dominion bureau of statistics at 32,500,000 pounds—one of the best on record. It exceeds the 1942 crop which was 24,100,000. Prairie provinces production totals 14,000,000 compared with the 1942 figure of 10,600,000 pounds.

Planning Next Blow At Germans In Italy

Already well on their way in Southern Italy, Canadians stop at a formation headquarters to study a map and plan fastest routes northwards in pursuit of fleeing German troops. The Canucks and units of the Eighth Army were pressing forward toward Salerno where they joined up with Gen. Mark Clark's Fifth Army ready for the drive against Naples. This group includes Lt.-Col. George Hay of Sussex, N.E. (seated); Capt. D. W. Turnbull of Toronto; Sgt. E. H. Sparrow of Westmont, Que.; and Capt. Bob Prince of Westmont.

PLANS BEING MADE

For Next-Of-Kin To Forward Messages To Repatriates

OTTAWA.—An external affairs department source said that arrangements for communicating with Canadians returning on the Swedish liner Gripsholm in an exchange of nationals between Canada and Japan now are being made.

He said next-of-kin of Canadian repatriates will be advised in the course by circular letter and through the press of the way in which they may send messages to the relatives concerned.

MUST WORK IN REICH

AT THE SWISS-ITALIAN FRONT

—Italian soldiers disarmed by the Germans have been deported to Germany where they have been added to labor ranks working for the Reich, it was disclosed. Official notification of this procedure, reported frequently since the Italian capitulation, was given by La Gazzetta di Venezia.

SHIP CELEBRATES

LONDON.—H.M.S. Musketeer, one of the new fast "M" class destroyers in the British navy, celebrated her first anniversary at sea and 3,000th mile the same day.

R.A.F.'s Four-Ton Blockbuster Ready To Go

Pictured in England is a close-up of an 8,000-pound bomb in front of the Lancaster which will carry it on the night's raid. This is one of the first photos of the R.A.F.'s 4-ton blockbuster whose weight has been felt with devastating effect on enemy targets in Italy and Germany.

Good Neighbors Also Use Bar Harbor Naval Base

In time of peace the exclusive rendezvous of society and its yachting brethren, Bar Harbor, Me., now is the site of a U.S. navy base and is a favorite port of call for the men who keep the Atlantic sea lanes clear of enemy craft. Here you see Canadian sailors coming ashore on liberty. The warmest of good-fellowship exists between the American and Canadian patrols who use the base.

CANADIAN TROOPS PLAYED AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE INVASION OF SOUTHERN EUROPE

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers.—The role of Canadian troops in the southern phase of the invasion of Europe has been made somewhat easier by the fall of Naples.

It is 12 weeks since our invasion troops, including General Simonds' First division and the Tank brigade moved into Sicily directly off ships which had sailed from Britain to the beaches. In one sense the Canadians were guests at that show.

They moved into the big league, in which their companions were seasoned veterans in the African fighting, Montgomery's 8th Army, with nearly a year of successful campaigning all the way from the Nile through Libya, the western desert and Tunisia. The 8th had the benefit of a magnificent general, experienced in such formations. They were a closely knit team in spirit and the first great successful attack force the Allies have produced in this war.

No army remains static in its makeup. New personnel and new formations are constantly added as the toll of war has effect.

Into this highly-gearred, smoothly-running war machine our Canadians were injected right off shipboard less than three months ago.

None, least of all the veterans of the 8th Army, could have been blamed before that for wondering if the Canadians would stack up.

All the world knows how the Canadians clicked in Sicily and none more than the veterans of the 8th Army appreciate the useful role of the Canadians throughout the drive.

The facts are that the Canadians behaved like troops with plenty of sound training and great steadiness. They have useful assault qualities although at no time have they been described as the greatest. However, they found themselves admitted to this great army and the trial worked out happily on all sides.

The Canadians were then chosen as part of a small initial force that successfully made the first bridgehead on continental Europe.

Since then they have been warring all over southern Italy, clipping off miles by the hundreds doing their job. Partly because of chance of battle this has meant they've had an easier time than the British and Americans who have now finally won Naples.

They've not had the grim battles of the 5th but strategically they're in an interesting position up on the right flank of Rome and their drive along with that of the other elements of Montgomery's force enables the Allies to control important ports and beaches along the Adriatic. If you ever needed any justification back in Canada for the years of training directed by MacNaughton, and for the money spent for equipment marshalled for organization which was revamped and improved from time to time, the overseas record of these past 12 weeks is impressive.

The Canadians who came as guests on someone else's program have carried out their stint in a workmanlike manner and they are now proven assault troops. When the time comes for the big drive against Hitler they can wholly support their faith.

ANNOUNCE A CO-OPERATIVE RECRUITING PROGRAM FOR THE THREE ARMED FORCES

OTTAWA.—A co-operative recruiting program for Canada's three armed forces, placing top emphasis on air crew, was announced in a joint statement by the defence ministers, Defence Minister Ralston for the army, Air Minister Power and Navy Minister Macdonald.

Details of the navy's participation are still incomplete, but main points of the plan disclosed are:

1. All men fit for aircrew will have an opportunity to enlist in that capacity.

2. Those fit for overseas army service but without specialist qualifications for aircrew will be enlisted in the army.

3. Men fit for army overseas service or possessing specialist qualifications for aircrew will not be allowed to enlist for air force ground crew.

4. An "equitable exchange" of men will be made between the army and air force at recruiting centres.

5. Men discharged from the army in the recently announced reorganization of home forces will be given opportunity to join the air force.

6. Transfers on a controlled and voluntary basis will be made between the army and air force overseas.

The announcement said all men who are fit to serve overseas in the army but who do not possess specialist qualifications for aircrew duties will be listed in the army, and that no men who are fit for overseas army service or who possess the specialist qualifications for aircrew will be permitted to enlist in the R.C.A.F. for ground duties.

Under the new plan, arrangements will be made for the equitable exchange of men between the army and air force at the recruiting centres. All general service (overseas) and National Resources Mobilization Act (home defence) recruits whose ages and abilities qualify them to serve overseas in the army will be referred to an R.C.A.F. recruiting officer stationed in the centre for interview as possible aircrew.

If an applicant wishes to enlist in aircrew and is acceptable, he will be taken over by the air force, but if he prefers army service he will be returned to the army for allocation to the branch for which he is fitted.

Army recruits found unsuitable for overseas service will also be turned over to the R.C.A.F. recruiting officer, who will interview them as possible recruits for ground crew duties in the R.C.A.F., where in ground crew trades physical qualifications are generally not so high as in thaw. A cesspool will be dug near the J. Rushton residence to improve drainage in that area.

A complaint was received: stretch of horses kept within the town limits. Since there is no by-law covering this matter council was unable to do anything about the complaint.

Approximately forty pounds of stale butter and meat were dumped by someone unknown on the hill at the east end of fourth street. The town foreman had to remove it as the smell was terrible.

The council accepted with thanks a pair of crutches and stretcher offered it by a citizen who is about to leave this district.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Poland's Freedom and The Victory Loan

Last Sunday evening many citizens were given an insight into the conditions at present prevailing in Occupied Poland. Nazi atrocities were listed at length. The theme of the several speakers, however, in relieving Nazi pressure on the luckless Poles under Nazi domination was the purchase of Victory Bonds. Bonds meant action on the home front to supply the fighting front with the materials of war. The munitions would carry the fighting Allies into Poland quicker than all the protest speeches ever spoken. The purchase of Victory Bonds will not only free Poland of the Hun but will decrease the inflation threat in Canada and speed the day when ration coupons will become only souvenirs of a day since past. Yes, by all means, buy Victory Bonds, they represent freedom for all.

Men of Tomorrow

War, with its grim tragedies makes one wonder what the world of tomorrow may be like. Thousands of promising young lives are being snuffed out, causing mankind to suffer deeply from their loss. However we may have an inkling right here in Coleman of what the man of tomorrow may be like.

Over the past few years one may have noticed social items recording youngsters donating to the Milk For Britain fund. This week it seems to have reached a climax as they start sponsoring ambitious schemes to help their British cousins in distress. These youngsters average in age from eight to fourteen years. They take time out from play to solicit odds and ends with which to raise money. This money is then turned over to the proper authorities, their only reward being to see their names in the local paper. There is not an ounce of selfishness in their make-up, they only want to help their fellowman. If the world has many of these kind of youngsters scattered throughout the earth, mankind need not fear the future.

Schools Re-Open
Tuesday, Oct. 12

All Former Teachers Will Be On Job With Exception of One. The clanging of school bells will once again ring out in the clear crisp air on Tuesday, Oct. 12, when the Fall school term will commence throughout Alberta.

Locally, all teachers of last June will again be on the job with the exception of one. Miss Helen Diblee has asked for two months leave of absence due to sickness and this was granted at a special meeting of the Board on Tuesday evening.

The janitors in all three schools have been busy during the long summer vacation cleaning and scrubbing and the schools are now open and span.

NUMBER OF MEN TRANSFERRED TO MORE ESSENTIAL EMPLOYMENTS

A. MacNamara, director of National Selective Service, states that 9,275 men had been transferred to more essential employment under the compulsory transfer orders, up to August 24th. 7,087 men had been granted permits to return indefinitely to their previous employment, either by reason of the man's physical condition or the priority of the job held at present.

The cases of 23,236 men are being gone into further, with a view to their transfer to more essential work. These men include some cases pending appeals against directions to accept transfer; some for whom higher priority jobs cannot be found in their own localities and for whom transfers to other districts have to be arranged; some awaiting further status under the military call-up; and others who have to be fitted into employment vacancies of particular types. These cases are being gone into further at this time.

Of the total of 47,529 men registered under the compulsory orders, 7,911 are returned soldiers or men with dependents, neither of these types being regarded as subject to transfer under the orders issued so far.

These transfers are apart from the ex-coal miners returned to the mines under separate orders.

WEDDINGS

MACDONALD-YATES

A honeymoon at White Rock, B.C., followed the marriage on Thursday, Sept. 23, of Ella, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Yates, of Coleman to Lieut. Rodrick Malcolm MacDonald, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. MacDonald, of Burquitlam, B.C.

The ceremony took place in St. Stephen's church, Burquitlam, B.C., with Canon P. Plaskett officiating.

Entering the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the Wedding March, the bride looked charming in a white satin gown with sweetheart neckline on the fitted bodice and full skirt. A Halo held the full length embroidered veil. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, white carnations and heather, and wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom.

For receiving the guests the bride's mother wore a two piece dress of Aquamarine blue with black accessories with corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's mother chose a new blue figured dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of deep pink carnations. The going away costume chosen by the bride was a two piece blue wool dress with British tan accessories. After the honeymoon the groom will return to his regiment and the bride will reside at Victoria.

In Memoriam

GRIFFITHS—In Loving Memory of Daniel Griffiths, who passed away Oct. 6, 1937. Gone but not forgotten. Ever remembered by his wife, Annie, Doris and Mildred.

Theatre Notes

A gay romantic musical comedy comes to the Palace screen this week end, when Barbara Stanwyck appears in "Lady of Burlesque." Barbara is the small-town actress who makes good in a big way when given her chance to appear on a big city stage. A March of Time story on Spain along with a news reel will support the main feature.

At Cole's this week end, Ginger Rogers and Cary Grant appear in a rather exciting story, "Once Upon a Honeymoon." It is laid in the early days of the Nazi blitz upon several European countries. Ginger is a lady from Brooklyn who gets herself an accent in a European capital and makes it pay dividends. Her husband is a Nazi. Cary Grant, an aggressive newspaperman is determined to keep Ginger from getting into any serious trouble.

At the Orpheum, Blainmore, there is a double feature. Two grand players, Preston Foster and Miriam Hopkins, appear in the thriller, "Gentlemen After Dark." The second feature stars Hopalong Cassidy in another do or die western, "Undercover Man."

Strong Protest

the home front, inducing others to work, to combat propaganda and to lend our dollars to the country's war effort. He pointed out that another large loan was about to be launched and advised all to share in it. He, and also his colleagues in the town council, were much in sympathy of the Polish cause.

Mrs. J. Lonsbury, extended the deepest sympathy of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Polish people and stated the Auxiliary would support any protest drawn up at this meeting.

Harold Houghton stated that the hearts of the Allied Nations bled in sympathy for the peoples of Occupied Poland. He stated that in the face of the facts in this war there were no good Germans to-day—only the dead ones. He said the German nation must be wiped out in his opinion. A nation that could not live in peace with its neighbor must be wiped out.

He reiterated Councillor Abousafy's appeal to keep working on the home front and buy Victory Bonds in the forthcoming loan. The Canadian Legion was in sympathy with Polish societies protest.

Walter Chackla stated purpose of the meeting was to place the facts of Occupied Poland's plight in front of the people of the Allied world. The Polish underground would receive the public response of these protest meetings and relay them to the Polish people. He stated action was needed in deeds not words.

David Hoyle stated a protest meeting of this nature was democracy in action. Meetings such as this throughout the Allied world would create strong protest and it was just possible that it might influence the Germans a little in relieving the Polish people from the suffering. It would be the duty of the Allies to get on with the war and stop these atrocities as quickly as possible. Speaking on behalf of the teaching profession he extended the deepest sympathy to the Polish people in their sorrow.

E. O. Duke, M.L.A. stated the people of Canada grieved with the Polish people. At the start of the war Poland had a population of 33 millions. Today 10 millions had disappeared. When a person met a mad dog it was a case of kill or be killed. The same applied to the mad-dog Hitler. The whole civilization is menaced by the cult in Germany. We could help by sending our sons, daughters and money in the war effort. He urged his listeners to buy bonds in the forthcoming loan.

During the program the Polish Youth choir sang a number of songs.

At the conclusion of the meeting the following resolution was unanimously endorsed by the audience:

Resolution: We, the liberty loving people of Polish extraction, and other citizens of Coleman, Alberta, gathered at this mass meeting, in the Polish hall, branded before God and the civilized world, against the excesses committed upon innocent children in Poland by the hordes of Nazis who are tearing the infants from mothers' arms and sending them to Germany for hard labor, forbidding them to learn to speak the Polish language.

We hereby appeal to the entire world to take full cognation of the brutal injuries which are being perpetrated against the children and women of Poland, and urge upon the government of other allied nations to render all possible assistance to the unfortunate who are cut off from the rest of the world by the fortresses of Nazi occupation.

"We are urging the Allied nations to proclaim a declaration to the entire world that after a victorious armistice the responsible Germans will be punished severely for persecuting children and women in occupied Poland. May this declaration halt or ease the cruelty upon the innocent children."

We strongly urge the press, radio and various other institutions and organizations to echo to the world the cry of those children for help and vengeance against the horrible crimes the Germans are committing upon them. May their words be repeated throughout the world.

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Prime Minister of Canada, Government of Great Britain and the Polish Government in London.

Brubaker in the New Yorker: Americans are always happy to hear that cousin Winston is a guest at the White House. There is some talk of raising a fund to buy him a commutation ticket.

Bargain Seeker

A man and his wife were out walking when the man noticed a tradesman's bill on the footpath. He picked it up, took a good look at it and turned to his wife:

"I'm going to pay this bill, Maggie."

"Whatever do you want to do that for, you soft thing?" said she. "It isn't yours."

"No", he replied, "but there's $1.50 discount, and I might as well have it as anyone else."—Grit

EDISON MAZDA SUPPLIES MANY SPECIALIZED LAMPS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THE FIGHTING SERVICES

FOR hard, grueling war service, many types of Edison Mazda Lamps have been developed. Typical of these tough, dependable lamps are the "marker lights" used on the life jackets and rafts of sailors, airmen and others forced into the sea. Designed for efficiency, built to "stand up", Edison Mazda Lamps give dependable service in every lighting job.

Build Yourself a Treasure House
with War Bonds!

Many thousands of Canadians have taken advantage of the past four war loans to build themselves a little treasure house which they will use to advantage in the post war period.

Are you following their example? Budget your monthly expenditures in order that you too may have a little financial surplus to start the erection of your treasure house when the next loan is floated on October 18.

Help Stop Inflation:

Statistics tell us that there is only ten dollars in goods for every fifteen dollars in the public pocket. In order to stop inflation Canadians must invest that surplus five dollars in Government Victory Bonds. The conduct of the Canadians of to-day will build the foundation for the Canada of the future.

DESTRUCTION OF U-BOAT BY BRITISH DESTROYERS
"HESPERUS" AND "VANESSA"

While forming part of a homeward-bound convoy escort the British destroyers "Hesperus" and "Vanessa" rammed and sank a German U-boat. The enemy was first sighted and rammed by HMS Vanessa. Though badly damaged it tried to escape in falling light, but was overhauled and finished off by HMS Hesperus, which rammed it for the second time, broke it in two and sank it. Survivors were picked up. Picture shows HMS Hesperus entering harbor. Note the damage to her bows caused by ramming the U-boat.

RMS LADY NELSON

RMS Lady Nelson, once the proud flagship of the Canada - West Indies fleet, is now a hospital ship, known simply as Canadian Army Ship No. 46. She made her first Atlantic crossing in May, bringing Canadians from Britain, some of them Dieppe veterans, and Americans from North Africa. In the picture CBC's commentator, Joan Marshall, is talking with Captain George W. Welch, first officer to command a Canadian hospital ship in this war. Miss Marshall described her visit aboard the Lady Nelson in a recent CBC Canadian Round-Up programme.

British minelayers are taking part in an unceasing struggle the object of which is to close Nazi shipping lines. Regardless of weather nearly every night little ships steam out into enemy waters carrying their deadly cargo. In the Mediterranean, in the Channel, along the Norwegian coast, they lay the mines, holding up enemy transports and restricting the movements of U-boats.

A DAY WILL COME..

WHAT IS A VICTORY BOND?

A VICTORY BOND is the promise of the Dominion of Canada to repay in cash the face value of the Bond on the date of maturity with half-yearly interest until that time. A Victory Bond is the safest investment in Canada backed by the entire resources of the Dominion. Canada has been issuing bonds for 75 years, and has never failed to pay every dollar of principal and interest when due. A Victory Bond is an asset readily marketable at any time.

Yes, a day will come... when he'll be back, ready to take his place in a Canada he helped make safe for all of us. To speed that day is in our power. We at home... in factories, in offices, on farms... work long hours to hurry it along. We go without, and lend our savings to provide what he needs to win quickly. This is the least that anyone can do. And when that day comes—you'll want to welcome him—and to help him make his hopes come true.

To speed Victory, plan to buy as many Victory Bonds as you can.

National War Finance Committee

Written specially for the weekly newspaper of Canada.

As the end of the Session flickered into view, the mills of Parliament started to grind faster but got caught in the whirl of some long distance debate. One subject was the Farmer's Creditors Arrangement Act, a bill bringing Manitoba into the system of farm debt legislation with her two sister provinces. Highlights: Limiting date of May 1, 1935 stays. If two-thirds of a farmer's debts were incurred before that date, he may seek adjustment on all his debts, even those incurred after. Opposition members from the West took the stand that legislation didn't go far enough for the farmer. Mr. Hsley who piloted the bill thought it unwise at this time to re-open fundamental issues of western debt problems and just couldn't see eye to eye with three province plea for permanent debt legislation, something which no other country has. He stressed courts have power to stay foreclosure.

A percentage of Army personnel from operational units and depots in Canada may be detailed up to 30 days, with provision for extension, to help with the harvest and help relieve manpower shortage in agriculture. . . the men will benefit from extra pay from the farmer employer. . . further details will be available in your own home front.

The important Agricultural Committee tabled final reports in the House, main recommendations summarized, being Consider advisability of paying farm storage on grain. . . . Whether to bonus marketed dairy butter and if eggs should be sold by weight—that precautions should be taken by the Meat Board to keep live cattle prices in proper relationship to beef carcass floor prices and also a measure between hog prices to producer and price of products by the processor. . . committee thought public should get more information on progress of research in producing new varieties of farm products. . . asked higher priority for essential farm equipment. The need of encouraging more production of essential foods was noted. Important too, was recommendation for a close check on spread of ceiling prices of feed grains and prices paid by live stock feeders in B.C., Eastern Canada.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics while showing that the cost of living index went up a little from 118.1 to 118.5 in June says the physical volume of business, climbing sharply since war broke out, showed signs of leveling off in that month.

You might be interested, housewives. The other day at the Prices Board information branch I had a look at the new ration book you will be getting between August 23-28. Twelve million are being printed, weighing 270 tons, enough to fill nine box cars. Piled singly they would reach 11 miles in the air and their 144 million pages would form a ribbon 3 1/4 inches wide, five times across Canada. Color changes in the ration book: grey cover, green for tea and coffee, red for sugar, purple for butter, meat brown, and 4 spare series. They tell us that a man would need to live until he is 2,000 years old if he started counting coupons. Canadians spend, at the rate of 4,000 per working day. By the way, your August and September canning coupons are usable now, merchants having been authorized to honour them ahead of date.

While it is definitely good news, that a new farm machinery order increases quotas, it should be remembered that you won't get much benefit from it until the crop year of 1944 for obvious reasons, because many of the items can't be completed until late fall. With allotment to zones as needed, machines will be increased to tonnage equal to 77% of the 1940-41 output, that of repairs 156%. The total will be 80% of the average weight of machines produced in the basic period.

With increased raising of live-stock and poultry in Eastern Canada as against an indicated short grain crop, the department of agriculture here has set up a subsidy on a sliding scale for eastern farmers to buy western feed grain for storage against next winter's feeding needs. It starts with a 3 cent subsidy per bushel for grains bought in July, 2 1/2 cents in August, receding 1/2 cent each month to a subsidy of 1/4 cent per bushel in December.

When it is realized that our Canadian producers have got the job this year of supplying 85% of Great Britain's bacon requirements to maintain their 4 oz. weekly ration, it emphasizes the tremendous war job being done on the farms from ocean to ocean. To hit this high mark in 1943 means that a greater percentage of hogs offered for slaughter in Canada will have to be diverted for export. It won't reduce the amount of pork for our own consumers much, however as canning pork for export is also reduced, mostly fresh and smoked being used now. Last year our shipments of bacon and ham to the Old Land was 5,249,519 cwt., in money, $99,723,878.

The editors of "Wings" magazine of the Royal Canadian Air Force tell me they're starting a new idea which should go over big with the lads and lasses in blues hailing from towns villages and farms. A page will be devoted to "home town news" of an earthy nature. Each month a weekly newspaper editor will be given space to address a newsworthy little letter to one of the home towners in some remote place on the continent with all the spice and gossip of the period.

Prices to be Set on Fresh Fruits

Peaches, plums and pears will come under the price ceiling, and control of prices of apples is being considered by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Action to set maximum prices for root crops, carrots, beets, turnips, parsnips and cabbage, during periods of short supply is also under consideration of the Board.

We both like Apple Pie and Cheese!

• We of Canada and the United States are the world's outstanding example of "good neighbours".

We are unique in our understanding of one another, in our mutual confidence, in our fellowship.

And the things which make us good neighbours are as basic as our common liking for apple pie and cheese.

We speak the same language.

We enjoy the same jokes.

We sing the same songs.

We play the same games.

We work and worship to the same ends.

One of us flying the Union Jack, the other the Stars and Stripes, we both nourish deep in our hearts the same concept of freedom, the same human ideals. And we share an indomitable determination that no one shall ever take them from us.

Today our soldiers fight side by side in all parts of the world. And our citizens work shoulder to shoulder to supply them and support them in their grim task. We of The House of Seagram are proud that our great plants in Canada and the United States are manned by thousands of Canadians and thousands of Americans working together . . . engaged 100% in the production of high-proof Alcohol for War.

Cigarette Fund Notes

Dear Sirs: Received a parcel of your cigs. today and were they ever welcome. Thank you and the people of Coleman for your wonderful effort in sending the cigs. I am having it pretty soft these days as I am not doing any flying. However I hope to be working soon.—Bill Naylor.

Dear Sirs: Received another shipment of 600 cigarettes. Thanks very much to all the people of Coleman for same.—A. L. McLeod.

Dear Sirs: Thanks to you and your most generous organization. I received another shipment of cigs today. Everything o.k. over here and I am really enjoying myself. Received your cigs on my birthday.—Bill Nimcan.

Dear Sirs: Willie Leier and I have received your cigs and wish to thank you a million for them. They were the first cigs we received from Canada so you can see how glad we were to receive them.—Willie Leier and Johnny Nimcan.

Dear Sirs: Received another 300 Sweet Caps and thanks ever so much. Met Pete Brown, also Tommy Dunn who used to play hockey for Coleman. Tommy fell out of a Bren gun carrier and is in bad shape. Pete is in A-1 condition. Well it looks like Old Man Hitler's doom is sealed now that Italy has surrendered. Hope it won't take long before it is all over with.—Alex. Chalmers.

Dear Friends: I am still receiving your cigarettes quite regularly. Thanks once again. Best regards to all.—Mel. Cousins.

Dear Sir: Received your cigarette parcel today. Am very grateful for each month's shipment and I appreciate them very much.—J. Panek.

Dear Sirs: I received a parcel of your most welcome smokes today. Thanks a lot. I was on leave in London and while there I ran into Roy McLeod, the first Coleman boy I have seen in months. Give my regards to all.—Dan Daly.

Airmen's Letters

Following is part of the contents of a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boulton from their son Foss, who is a prisoner of war:

"I am now at a British-staffed hospital and the treatment is excellent. The food is good and as you know time is a great healer. If you would get in touch with the local Red Cross send me the following articles in a parcel: Razor blades, razor (Gillette), tooth brush, tooth paste, pocket knife, handkerchiefs, socks, two shirts (16), two black ties, belt and towel. This will be all I will need at present.

I had another operation on my skull and retrieved some bone and steel. I must say that any skull that allows 30 mm cannon shell to bounce off with impunity is a skull worth having.—Foss.

YOUR BANKS are more extensively regulated than any other Canadian business.

Canada's ten Chartered Banks are subject, under the Bank Act, to the most thorough-going regulation. For instance:

The annual audit—conducted by Chartered Accountants appointed by the banks' shareholders—is submitted to the Department of Finance. The Department may call for further special audits, and in addition maintains regular inspections of the banks' affairs through the Inspector-General of Banks, who is obliged by law to examine the banks' books at least once each year.

Then there are monthly returns to both the Department of Finance and to the Bank of Canada. The Minister may also call for special returns at any time.

All this in addition to the Bank Act's extensive regulations covering such phases of banking operation as reserve requirements, types of transactions permitted, interest rates and note issue.

These regulations are for the purpose of safeguarding your savings and guiding the operations of the banks as an essential element of our national life.

THE CHARTERED BANKS OF CANADA

Kibitzers

An item in the Camp Grant Sentinel tells how engineers from Mitchell Field, Long Island, put on a sham battle at the Nassau county war exposition. Twenty of the men were detailed to be "victims." Their faces were smeared with catsup for the sake of realism.

The ambulance units, however, could find only one-fourth of the casualties. It wasn't the fact that the dust-catching catsup made the "wounded" men disappear. Bands of youngsters, one explained bitterly, were razing the victims. "Wipe that catsup off your face," they'd shout. "Fine thing, wasting stuff that costs 14 points a bottle."

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Dr. Augusta Stowe-Gullen, the first woman to take a medical degree at a Canadian university, died recently in Toronto.

Direct telephone service has been established between New York and Moscow. The cost of a call is on the basis of $21 for three minutes.

Britain's National Milk scheme, introduced in 1934, now provides milk daily for about 3,500,000 school children in England and Wales and 525,830 school children in Scotland.

Sweden's merchant marine lost 222 vessels, amounting to 577,000 gross tons, from the beginning of the war until the end of August, the American Swedish News Exchange announced.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics says that during June and July average for benefit payments under the unemployment insurance scheme numbered 1,772 and 1,087 respectively.

Britain has presented a further 130 valuable books to the Benedictines in Spain to help to rebuild the famous library in the Abbey at Monaster, damaged during the Spanish civil war.

A voluntary organization, the Poor Man's Valuer Association, has been set up in London, to give free advice on the war damage act. A similar organization, the Poor Man's Lawyer's Association, is run by the Law Society.

Although all unnecessary motor traffic has been abolished, more people are being killed on Britain's roads than in peacetime, the ministry of transport said in an appeal to the public to form "habits of sane and courteous road behavior."

Plight of Italy

Words of Garibaldi Are Recalled By Speech of Prime Minister Churchill

In a brief reference to the plight of Italy, Prime Minister Churchill said in his broadcast in Quebec that the "curse of Garibaldi" had fallen on "this wretched Mussolini and his son-in-law and accomplice, Ciano." This presumably alluded to a letter that Giuseppe Garibaldi, the soldier-liberator of Italy, wrote in 1854 acknowledging the gift of a sword and telescope at Tynemouth, England. In it he said: "England is a great and powerful nation... enemy to despotism, only safe refuge of the exile, friend of the oppressed, but if ever England, your native country, should be so circumstanced as to require the help of an ally, cursed be that Italian who would not step forward with me in her defence."

HOME SERVICE

FRESHEN YOUR HOME WITH BRIGHT NEW SLIP COVERS

Smart Slip Cover

That faded Cinderella of your chairs may become a queen overnight. For today you can pin on colorful slip-cover material—and tomorrow you can baste and finish. It's as simple as that to make such a smart slip cover.

Working the pin-on way, remove the chair cushion and smooth your fabric over the inside-back and seat, leaving a four-inch tuck-in between. For welled seams, work with fabric wrong side out. Then you pin every three inches and cut off surplus material outside the pins, allowing 1½ inches for seams and baste, inserting the welting from the right side. This half completes your slip cover! All that remains is to attach it up and add the fringe.

Send 15c in coins for your copy of "How to Make Slip Covers" to Home Service Dept., Winnipeg Newspaper Union, 175 McDermott Ave. E., Winnipeg, Man. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Leroy R. Cortell of Los Angeles bought a battered steel six months ago from a passerby who said he needed 15 cents for coffee and doughnuts. Cortell, cleaning the bag before reselling it to a friend for 25 cents, felt something beneath the lining. It was three neatly folded bills, amounting to $60. 2534

Invasion Barges Latest "High And Wide" Rail Loads

The problem of the transportation by rail of huge single-unit materials needed for Canada's war effort has presented a challenge which has been met and mastered by the ingenuity of Canadian railwaymen. These "oversize" shipments are moving daily over rail lines in all sections of the Dominion. To railwaymen they are known as "high and wide" loads. They require special care and skill in loading and many of them also necessitate special operating arrangements. The Canadian National Railways recently handled what is said to be the largest single-unit freight shipment ever carried by a railway on this continent. This was a 150-ton tank loaded on three flat cars which was transported from Montreal to the Government's new synthetic rubber plant at Sarnia. The latest "high and wide" loads, carried by the Canadian National, are invasion barges, now forming such an essential part of the equipment of Allies' fighting forces. Other unusual freight loads illustrated in the drawings are: 1. An army laundry unit. 2. A 60-foot tug built at Owen Sound and shipped by C.N.R. to the seaboard. 3. A huge propeller en route to a shipbuilding plant. 4. A marine boiler which required a specially equipped car and fixtures to prevent rolling. 5. The big tank loaded on three flat cars for the record trip.

Hospital For Palestine

Fully Equipped And Up-To-Date In Every Particular

The British medical journal Lancet reports that the best American hospital in the Middle East has arrived in Palestine from Eritrea.

The hospital is staffed by 24 specialists, three dentists and a full complement of nurses. With 1,000 beds, it will probably be the biggest hospital in Palestine.

The hospital occupies 30 four-story buildings grouped around a hill, with adjoining administrative, surgical, laryngological, physiotherapy and X-ray departments and a laboratory. It will have its own water supply and laundry.

Teaching Christianity

Youth Must Be Taught To Further Christian Civilization

Youth must be taught and trained to further the Christian civilization we are fighting to retain as a heritage for them.

It should be remembered, too, that the first line of defence of civilization is education. And if it is Christian civilization that we wish to preserve, enhance and expand, then, surely, it is obligatory that Christian teaching as set forth in the Scriptures must have a prominent and permanent place in the curriculum of the public schools.

Still Being Observed

Canadian Attended Celebration Of Oak-Apple Day At Chelsea Hospital

An average of 13,000 questions a month are asked at the Y.M.C.A. Enquiry Bureau at Waterloo Station, London, but the strangest of all was asked recently by a Canadian, who inquired if "Oak-Apple Day" was still observed at Chelsea Hospital. "Oak-Apple Day" is the escape of Charles II at Boscomb, in the Civil War, when the King escaped capture by hiding in an oak tree. The Royal Hospital, Chelsea, was built by Wren and founded by Nell Gwynne. The Y.M.C.A. worker not only discovered that the celebration was still held, but obtained a ticket for the Canadian to attend.

WORLD'S TOUGHEST WOOD

Before the war India used to import large quantities of foreign log materials. Now, as a result of experiments carried out at the Forest Research Institute at Dehra Dun they have discovered a tree with what is considered to be the world's toughest wood, ideal for heavy striking handles. It belongs to the Angiosperm family. Another member of the same family yields a hard wood equal in strength to our hickory.

REVERENCE FOR GOD

Golden text: God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth. John 4:24. Lesson: Exodus 20:3-7; Matthew 4:10, 6:9; John 4:23, 24. Devotional Reading: John 4:21-26.

Explanations and Comments
God Spoke! All These Words, Exodus 20:2. Our word "Decalogue" used for the Ten Commandments, is from two Greek words deka, ten, and logos, word. God spoke all these words, saying, I am Jehovah thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. The appeal to history of promise for the future: what Jehovah has been to their forefathers that he will be to those who enter into covenant with him to keep his commandments.

The First Three Commandments: Worship and Reverence God, Exodus 20:3-7. When these laws were promulgated, the world was given over to the worship of many gods. The First Commandment forbids polytheism, the worship of false gods: Thou shalt have no other gods before me. No other gods are to be preferred to Jehovah nor are any others to be worshipped as well as he. The Spanish translation for "before me" is delante de mi, in my presence, and some one has beautifully said: "I always see the sun rising, and all the shadows of the night fleeing before his face. It is as if he said, 'Before my face, in the light of my revelation, how can you dream that other gods exist?'"

What a man loves, that is his god. Luther reminds us. We cannot serve God and mammon.

The Second Commandment forbids image worship, the making of images as objects of worship. You shall not carve any idols for yourselves, the shape of anything in heaven above, etc. (Moffatt). The earth was thought of at this time as flat and resting upon a large abyss of water, and therefore the commandment reads, "any likeness that is in the water under the earth."

We are not tempted to worship the image of a bull as did the Israelites of old, but how about our worship of mammon, of rank, of power? The delinquency of demonic, brute force is rampant in the world today.

Matter Of Opinion

Friends Once Thought Marriage Of Mrs. Churchill Was Mistake

Writing in Toronto "Saturday Night," Margaret Aitken recalls that when Clementine Hozier married a young man named Winston Spencer Churchill, family friends thought she was not doing too well for herself. Daughter of a permanent army man and granddaughter of the seventh Earl of Airlie, beautiful Clementine was said to be throwing herself away on a young man of no wealth who was in the political doghouse. He was bumptious, arrogant and had ruined his chances for political advancement, the local gossips declared. But Miss Hozier married Mr. Churchill in 1908 and many times since then she has watched her husband's political fortunes ebb and wane and flow again to the highest of all political positions.

May Double Luck

Eight-Leaf Clover Was Found By Woman In British Columbia

Mrs. Edward Heed of Kettle Valley, B.C., is in a delightful quandary right now. She wants to know this: If a four-leaf clover brings luck, does an eight-leaf clover carry a double share of it? For she's just found such a phenomenon, and wonders if this is the first time it has happened in Canada or anywhere. The unique find, a large and fully developed eight-leafed clover, was picked in the Nicholson Creek district, in the interior of B.C., and has been a source of interest to the entire region.

CHAPTER V.

It was Anne Jamieson who answered the knock at the Castle Theatre dressing room. "Jonathan Hale!" she exclaimed at sight of the tall man in the hall. Then, recovering from her surprise, she smiled and opened the door wider. "Come in, Jonathan."

Monsieur Denys, stretched straight-length on a cushioned settee, flinched and dropped to the floor the book he had been reading.

"Jonathan!" he beamed, hurrying forward with extended hand. "How did you ever find us, mon ami. That brooch at her breast was probably worth more money than he had obtained for the sale of the Hale farm. Yet the sight of her, beautiful beyond compare, and the memory of the kiss they had shared was enough to override his inherent shyness."

"Anne," he stammered. "Miss Jamieson—I have come to ask you to marry me—"

THE smile vanished from her face as she saw the still that Jonathan's voice trailed into silence. Finally the girl spoke. "You are in love with me, Jonathan?"

"No," he said. "It was only then that Jonathan Hale realized that his behavior was puerile. After all Anne Jamieson hardly knew him. That brooch at her breast was probably worth more money than he had obtained for the sale of the Hale farm. Yet the sight of her, beautiful beyond compare, and the memory of the kiss they had shared was enough to override his inherent shyness."

pockets. Half of it is yours."

"No," Jonathan shook his head and turned away. "That is money sinfully acquired. I want none of it."

The disapproval of the Puritan left no mark on Denys's animation. "Every man must view the world through his own eyes," he philosophized, as he cleared the table of his winnings.

THEY left the Golden Hind, walking the streets slowly as Denys, who knew Anne's habits, combed the possible places where the girl might be found. The tavern was three blocks behind before the Frenchman's corrugated brow cleared.

"She may have returned to the Castle Theatre," he remarked, halting at a dim intersection of streets. "It is you she is trying to avoid, and she may have come back believing that I had got rid of you by this time."

"The theatre is just down the street at our right," said Jonathan. "Let us investigate."

Monsieur Denys caught young Hale's arm. "It would be better if I went alone, Jonathan. Remain here, mon ami. I shall not be long."

He strode off into the gloom and rounded the corner of the street. Jonathan settled himself against the bricks of the building, reluctant, but aware that the Frenchman's counsel was good. He tingled at the possibility that a few minutes would find him facing a smiling Anne—

Jonathan shifted position. The pressure of the bricks was cramping his shoulder muscles. What could be keeping Denys? He moved to the corner of the building to peer in the direction of the Castle Theatre. The playhouse was no more than a stone's throw away, invisible in the unlighted dark.

Already Jonathan had been waiting a full half-hour—perhaps more. He became uneasy and then abruptly, was in motion. He could stand the doubt and inaction no longer.

Jonathan finds Denys mortally wounded.

Assurance From London

During Hardest Hours Big Ben Gave Message Of Hope

From Latin America comes a very gracious tribute to Britain and the Empire. A leaderette in a recent issue of the Journal de Brasil (one of Brazil's important national newspapers) written by Barbosa Lima Sobrinho, speaks of the anxious fear felt there for our fate following the fall of France. It contrasts the war news of the present time "of Allied victories everywhere, of Germany's difficulties inside Russia and of the strength of the Allied air force" with the "dreadful days of the blitz" in 1940.

"During the Luftwaffe's fierce raids," it says, "one's fear increased nightly that one might not be able to get the BBC. But, without fail, there it was, as steadfast as England herself." The news, the writer recalls, was anything but cheering:

"Like Churchill, the BBC spoke only of blood, sweat and tears." But, he emphasizes, it wasn't only the news they waited to hear. It was also "these resounding, lingering strokes which chimed a message of hope and proved that something, at any rate, still stood firm, determined to fight the machiavellian German fury which was concentrated on the heroic rock that was Britain and the faithful Dominions."

The article concludes: "Little do you know, oh London chimes, how you encouraged us in those hours of almost total darkness. . . . Night after night, when our spirits were at their lowest, when all hope seemed severed, from London came the assurance that a superhuman will stood firm, ready to bear any suffering or sacrifice except that of capitulation. And who gave us the assurance of this epic resistance? You, Big Ben, in the city of London, with your regular chimes echoing in homes throughout the world."—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Against Inflation

Alberta Women Wire Congratulations To Donald Gordon

More than 13,000 active officers of the Consumer Branch, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, support the sentiments expressed by the Alberta Women's Regional Advisory Committee in a recent telegram to Donald Gordon.

Having worked to prevent an increase of cost of living for almost two years now, the Committee pledged their continued co-operation as follows:

"The Alberta Women's Regional Advisory Committee representing 15,000 women affiliated with through their organizations wishes to compliment you on your splendid work in the struggle against inflation. We realize that the going is tough and sometimes discouraging but urge that you fight on for the sake of our children and our fighting sons and husbands whose future depends on economic victory on the home front. Keep up the good work. We are with you."

SMILE AWHILE

Brown: Are you going to send your son to college?

Smith: What's the use? He has absolutely no interest in athletics.

She: "My sin is vanity—I spend hours admiring my good looks."

He: "That's not vanity, that's just imagination."

Stranger: Is the train from the west very late?

Station Attendant: Nope. We're expecting it any hour now.

Cheery Philosopher: I believe that for every single thing you give away two come back to you.

Pessimist: That's my experience. Last February I gave away my daughter, and she and her husband came back early this month.

Mrs. Jones—My husband swears dreadfully now.

Mrs. Smith—Ah, because he plays golf?

Mrs. Jones—No, because he can't.

Mary—How is it Bill never takes you to the movies any more?

Helen—Well, one evening it rained and we stayed home.

Saleman—These shirts simply laugh at the laundry.

Customer—I know it—I've had some come back with their sides split.

Typographical error: "As Mr. Smith mounted the platform to open the flower show, all eyes were fixed upon the large red nose he displayed. Only years of careful cultivation could have produced such a brilliant exhibit."

Chinese Patient (on telephone): "Doctor, what time you fixee teeth for me?"

Doctor: "Two-thirty—all right?"

Chinese: "Yes tooth hurty all right, but wha' times you fixee?"

A celebrated vocalist was in a motorcar accident one day. A paper, after recording the accident, added: "We are happy to state he was able to appear the following evening in three pieces."

"Oh, how beautiful that face. Whose portrait is it?"

Artist—Your daughter's madam.

"What a remarkable resemblance. Can you paint me at once?"

"Does your husband worry about the grocery bill?"

"No; he says there's no sense in both himself and the grocer worrying over the same bill."

"I'm beginning to think my lawyer is too interested in seeing how much money he can get out of me."

"Why?"

"Just listen to this bill: 'For waking up at night and thinking about your case—$5.'"

Quite Impossible

Princess Elizabeth Cannot Be Given Title "Princess of Wales"

Loyal town councillors in Fwllheli, Wales, have suggested that Princess Elizabeth should be given the title "Princess of Wales" in her own right. Unfortunately it is not possible.

Originally the King can create the title, but in fact his actions are governed by strict traditions. One is that the title of Princes of Wales shall be held by the heir apparent to the throne and that his wife shall be Princess of Wales. While there is a possibility of the King having a son or a grandson, the title must be reserved.

Princess Elizabeth is not the heir apparent, but the heir presumptive. In the case of an heir apparent nobody else can step in between him and the throne. But it is different with a princess. She is presumed to be heir only in the absence of a royal son.

When Princess Elizabeth succeeded to the Throne she will be unique in one respect. No daughter has succeeded her father directly so far. Mary succeeded her brother, Edward VI. Elizabeth succeeded Mary. Anne succeeded William III, her brother-in-law, and Victoria succeeded William IV, her uncle.
